Reissue Applications

The recapture rule bars the patentee from acquiring through reissue claims that are, in all aspects, of the same scope as, or are broader in scope than, those claims canceled from the original application to obtain a patent. Ball, 729 F.2d at 1436, 221 USPQ at 295.

Claims 38-59 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as improperly broadening the claims by removing the process limitation of step c) of claim 1, "adding citric acid to the mixture in amounts to reduce the pH to 6.5 or lower" and the claims do not have support in the disclosure where step c) is omitted. The disclosure recites step c) which is critical (see col.5, lines 31-67, bridging col.6, lines 1-16).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 1/2/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that no relevant coverage was given up by the amendment and that the recapture rule does not apply.

In response to applicant's argument, the recapture rule does apply and the rejection set forth above is maintained for reasons of record. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
